

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1874—TRIPLE SHEET.

New Publications.

BACK NUMBERS AND COMPLETE SETS of all the AMERICAN AND FOREIGN MAGAZINES, at the AMERICAN AND FOREIGN MAGAZINE DEPOT, 24 Broad-st., New York.

BEST GIFT TO A LADY.

Send us your name, and we will send you credit to our credit.

A welcome reminder to yourself, new every week of the year.

THE HOME JOURNAL, one year, to any address, postpaid, $3.

HOME JOURNAL, with Harper's, or any $4 magazine, one year, postpaid, $5 25.

MORRIS PHILLIPS & CO., No. 3 Park-place, N. Y.

CHEAPEST BOOKSTORE IN THE WORLD.

67,622 MAGNIFICENT HOLIDAY BOOKS AT OUR PRICES.

88,672 BUILDING AND HOME BOOKS, &c.

97,432 STEREOGRAPHIC VIEWS, &c.

25,742 CHILDREN'S BOOKS, 20c. EACH. WORTH 75c.

ERGOT BROTHERS, 3 BEAKMAN-ST., CORNER PARK ROW.

"EVERY DAY'S NEED," A collection of WELL-PROVEN RECIPES furnished by the BUSINESS WOMEN'S UNION.

LADIES OF THE BUSINESS WOMEN'S UNION.

Price, 50c. 75c. paper, 50c.

The book will be sent to any address, on receipt of price. Address BUSINESS WOMEN'S UNION, SO Washington-st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

ELEGANT GIFT BOOKS.

English Editions in the choicest bindings of all the Standard Books of the day.

FIELDING'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

SIMONETT'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

STERNE'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

THACKERAY'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

MACAULAY'S WORKS, Finest Editions.

LEVER—GIBSON, Finest Editions.

GOLDSMITH, Finest Editions.

KIGHTS ENGLAND, Finest Editions.

TAINES ENGLISH LITERATURE, Finest Editions.

BRITISH POETS, &c., &c., Finest Editions.

JUVENILE AND TOY BOOKS in great variety.

R. WORTHINGTON & CO., 750 Broadway.

EVERY CHILD SHOULD HAVE A COPY of THE LEGENDS OF THE CHRIST-CHILD FOR CHRISTMAS-TIME. Illustrated with half-page engravings and vignettes, and bound in an illuminated page, which in its design is unique. Price, 50c.

"It is a bewitching story—bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Cloth, illustrated, $1 50.

THE FROZEN DEEP. By White Collins.

"One of Mr. Collier's best efforts."—London Advertiser.

"The story is very interesting, and is full of dramatic situations."—New-York Tribune.

Cloth, illustrated, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE MINISTER OF SONG. A volume of sacred poetry. By FRANCIS RIDLEY HAVERULLE. 25s. Gilt edges. Price, $1 50.

"A most charming volume of sacred诗."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

This is one of the sweetest publications ever offered to reading public. It is a gem of the purest water."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

"This is one of the sweetest publications ever offered to reading public. It is a gem of the purest water."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

ARMAGNAUD & HOY, Principals.

SALAD FOR THE SOLITARY AND SOCIAL.

An excellent book—a course of the most agreeable essays, which will be found reading and pleasant humor. . . . Working to find its place in the world.

An elegant volume, illustrated with 50 half-finished drawings. Price, in cloth, $4; leather, $5; half cloth, $4 50; half leather, $5 50.

For sale by all booksellers, or sent free on receipt of price by the publishers.

DEWITT C. LENT & CO., No. 446 Broadway, New-York.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS, Fourth-and Twenty-first-st., and 1148 Broadway, Offer.

ATTRACTIVE COLLECTION of English and American STANDARD AND ILLUSTRATED BOOKS.

A large portion of their standard books in fine bindings, have been put up especially for their retail trade, and will be found unusually elegant and desirable, while they display at both their stores, a great variety of CHILDREN'S BOOKS.

Fit for all ages and all pockets.

JUST ISSUED.

PATRICIA KEMBALL.

A charming and powerful romance, by E. LYNN LINTON.

Author of "The Girl of the Islands," "Justine," &c. &c.

London, 25s. Gilt edges. Price, $1 50.

"It is a very nice, clean, and interesting story, with a pleasant difference of style and coloring running through it like the air-bells in a chime-work, an obscure genius humor as well as keen wit and a sense of the absurd. The author has a good sense of the comic, and the wood-cuts are unusually delicate and effective. There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child."

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

There is a general air of chaste and simple beauty about this little book that will charm every child.

Two legends are in prose and one in verse—come to see a bewitching story, bright and witty and tender, and full of human interest."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.

Price, $1 50.

THE GOLDEN AGE. By William Collins.

"A most charming story—full of deep religious interest, and are very charming illustrations."—[L. C. M.], in the New-York Tribune.